For the Not-So-Basic Brunch Lover

⇒ Thou shalt not ever let brunch be basic. Stick to your commandments and check out the newest brunch spot that's rightfully earned all of the buzz! Morning Glory overlooks Little Italy's Piazza della Famiglia and features a chic design-heavy space equipped with top-tier breakfast, completely custom-made by designer Paul Basile of BASILE Studio. Morning Glory's unique, 1980s-inspired ambiance is equally matched by top-tier breakfast by two-Michelin starred Executive Chef Jason McLeod and CH Projects Hospitality Group. Their menu aims to be a step above, sourcing culinary inspiration from all over the globe. Beat that weekend crowd and get there early, though; no reservations are being taken just yet! ■

12 FOR THE

Parent Who Claims to Be an Artisanal Chef

⇒ Is your belly half-full, or half-empty? Either way you look at it, parents are constantly checking that our bellies are happily fed through our entire adolescence and beyond. Treat the masterminds behind your entire childhood cuisine to a place where they can relish in an innovative culinary experience! Book a stay and join The Lodge at Torrey Pines for their 17th annual Celebrate the Craft event, where gourmet artisans gather to showcase the finest food, wine and craft beer. It will take place on Oct. 20 from 11:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
